Inactive Membership

Any person having non-show, non-voting privileges with seniority privilege being optional. Inactive membership status must be approved by the Board of Directors on petition of the individual member and the fee to maintain seniority or relinquish seniority ranking will be determined by the Board of Directors.

Subordinate Members:

Any active Regular Member may appoint a Subordinate Member in the Association by notification to the Executive Director. A person is eligible to hold a Subordinate Membership if that person derives income from the sale of outdoor recreational products directly from the Regular Member appointing such person. A Regular Member may appoint more than one Subordinate Member, and may reassign a Subordinate Membership to another eligible person upon notification to the Executive Director.

A Regular Member may hold open an unassigned Subordinate Membership position by maintaining the dues for such position in good standing.

Unless a Subordinate Membership is otherwise terminated pursuant to these Bylaws, a Subordinate Membership shall be terminated upon such person no longer deriving income from the Regular Member or upon notification of termination or reassignment by the Regular Member by whom the person was appointed.

Subordinate Memberships are non-voting.

SHOWS

Currently EORA sponsors multiple shows per year:

To attend a show your regular membership fee must be paid on time.

The appropriate booth/show fee must also be paid. Failure to pay on time can affect your booth selection, listing in the show registers and Buyers Guide.

There will be a charge of $50.00 on all returned checks.

Refer to EORA By-laws for complete membership rules.
